WRIT PETITION UNDER ARTICLE 226 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

Appearance:

Shri Deepak Jain, Counsel for the petitioner.

Shri Yashwant Singh, Govt. Advocate for the State on advance copy.

ORAL ORDER
(01.08.2007)

SUNIL KUMAR SINHA, J.

Heard.

Challenge is made to the order dated 29.06.2007, by which, the petitioner, who is working on the post of Assistant Grade-II has been transferred from Rajnandgaon to Mahasamund on administrative grounds.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the wife of the petitioner is also working in Dongargarh, which is nearer to Rajnandgaon and she is suffering from uterus ailment, therefore, it would be difficult for the petitioner to go to the transferred place.

Needless to say that these are not the grounds in law to interfere in the matter of transfer. Moreover, these are the grounds which may be considered by the employer, because the employee has to work under the control of employer, who has to provide better atmosphere to him in all circumstances so that he may render excellent services.

In view of the above, I am not inclined to issue any writ to the respondents.

However, in my opinion, the ends of justice would be served, if this petition is disposed of with a direction to the petitioner to file a representation before the concerned authority, which shall be decided by them in accordance with law.

If so advised, the petitioner may file a detailed representation before the concerned authority, which may be decided by them in accordance with law.

The petition stands finally disposed of.
